With a foreword by Paul Fletcher MBE

NO NAY NEVER

VOLUME TWO

The latest anthology of Burnley Football Club writing
Collected and edited by Dave Thomas
With a Foreword by Paul Fletcher MBE

A new official club publication for 2008
Dinner and launch on October 11th in the James Hargreaves Suite
In the company of stars and legends of the club

This Second Volume of No Nay Never is a new collection of articles and features about Burnley Football Club. Collected from a wide range of publications and authors, Dave Thomas has put together another great collection of chapters which dip into the history of the club.

Contents include:

- Burnley man Charles Sutcliffe who was a driving force in the early days of the Football League.
- Burnley man Jimmy Hogan who introduced a new type of football to the Continent but was sadly ignored by his home country.
- The 1946/47 Cup Final and promotion season with Jack Rosenthal.
- The 1962 Cup Final.
- Another Bob Lord chapter to supplement the chapter in Volume One.
- Harry Potts Remembered ... the full interviews with players undertaken for the Harry Potts book.
- Features on Colin McDonald ... John Connelly ... Ray Pointer ... Martin Dobson and Brian O Neil.
- The wives' tales... two players' stories told through the eyes of Carole Dobson and Brenda Thomas.
- The 1981 - 84 years: promotion, relegation and John Bond.
- The Fourth Division wilderness years 1985 - 92: and rivalry with Rochdale.
- Small town big city: Burnley and Manchester United over the years.
- Stan Ternent: promotion season and the final season.
- Special photograph sections: provided by Margaret Potts; and sports photographers Eddie Rawlinson and Gerry Bradley.

There are chapters from the newest football books along with specially conducted interviews with Stan Ternent, Ray Pointer, John Connelly, and former director Derek Gill. There is material by Simon Inglis, George Best, Terry Venables, Arthur Hopcraft, Blake Morrison and Mark Hodgkinson.

All but a handful of copies of Volume One are sold and the companion volume is even better. Subscriber copies will be signed by the author, Barry Kilby and Paul Fletcher. If you bought Volume One you will be sure to want to obtain the companion volume.

The Author

This will be the sixth book by Dave Thomas

It's Burnley Not Barcelona. A diary of season 2002/03. A few copies available from the author.

No Nay Never. Volume One. An anthology of Burnley writing. A very small number of copies available from the author.

Together Again. The Willie Irvine Story. Available from the author.

Harry Potts. Margaret's Story. Harry's life and career, the Championship season, the Cup Final, much of it told through the eyes of his wife Margaret. Available from the club shop.

Russians Don't Land Here. A diary of season 2006/07. The club record winless run, pen pictures of several players, features on Steve Cotterill, the chairman Barry Kilby, and director Ray Griffiths. Available from the author.

Dave now lives in Leeds but lived in Todmorden for his first 20 years. His first full season at Turf Moor was 1959/60, not a bad start. He was a teacher for over 30 years and 14 of those were as a Head. He now writes for fun; living proof that most football books make no money for their authors. Writing Burnley Football Club books is therefore, for him, a labour of love. Nothing would give him greater pleasure than to write the diary of the club's first season in the Premiership. In the meantime, while he is waiting for that (you'd better hurry up lads), he is bringing up his Leeds-based grandson to be a Claret and saving up for him to be a mascot.

NO NAY NEVER VOLUME TWO

THIS IS AN OFFICIAL BURNLEY FOOTBALL CLUB PUBLICATION

Proceeds will go to the Burnley FC Youth Development Trust
